TEXAS GREEN FLAG AWARD RECIPIENT:

TIFFANY SCHWARTZ

As the TX NAWGJ board's unsung hero, Tiffany's knowledge of 501(c)(3) financial rules have proven invaluable for Texas – a large state with a very large financial responsibility to its members. Tiffany understands financial accounting for non-profits; she works with National NAWGJ's chief financial officer to ensure that the quarterly financial reports are aligned properly. She presents the annual budget to the board for approval. Tiffany does the job that no one else on the board wants to assume; she saves us a tremendous amount of time with her knowledge and expertise. She digs deep into the financial reports; she wades into the budget and makes educated recommendations. Tiffany performs her "magic" with the financials, and she does her work accurately and on time. For all of her work, time, and expertise, Tiffany deserves our gratitude. She is truly an invaluable asset to our board.

We are in the process of exploring alternative dates for events that have been impacted by the Coronavirus and the postponement of the Tokyo Games. Specifically, we are working with the USOPC and the St. Louis Sports Commission to reschedule the Olympic Trials, once the new dates for the Olympic Games are set. Barring any scheduling conflicts, we are planning to hold Olympic Trials in St. Louis in 2021.

We are also exploring rescheduling 2020 events to late summer or fall, but only if it is safe to hold events in light of the global pandemic and our athletes' ability to train appropriately beforehand. Specifically, we are exploring the possibility of rescheduling the 2020 GK U.S. Classic, 2020 U.S. Championships, 2020 USA Gym Championships and 2020 National Congress and Trade Show.

As you can imagine, working through the rescheduling of these events, and the details of each, is challenging and complex, so we truly appreciate your patience and understanding as we navigate through this.

As soon as new information is available, we will share it with you
